In addition, there was in the trensury on the 1st of July, 1855, the sum of $683,373 66, balances of various trust funds, as per statement

The estimated receipts for the fiscal year ending 30th o. June, 1855, based upon the actual receipts on the first quarter, together with the actubalance in the treasury on the 1st of July, 1854, ere $84,159,270 25, and the actual receipts were $55,337,898 05, and in excess of the estimated recripts $1,175,627 70, and the estimated expondithe actual expenditures were $56,209,922 04; making an excess of expenditures, over the estimate, it $1,864,000 SG; but nothing was estimated for premiums, and payment of the public debt, for the ast three quarters of the year, nor was anything estimated for appropriations by private acts of

The actual receipts for said year were $1,611,-101 24 from custems less than estimated, and $2, 65 394 95 more from lands than estimated, and $168,763 01 less than estimated from miscella ous sources. The causes which it was then appro-uended would added the receipts from customs for the remaining three quarters of the fiscal year had a more stringent operation than was calculated, whilst the proceeds of the sales of the public lands seceded the estimate.

The actual receipts int the treasury, from custens, for the first quarter of the fireal year, to end the 30th of June, 1850, have been $17,085,238 28, and $1,551 550 17 less than the actual receipts of he corresponding quarter of the preceding year, crising from the same causes that affected the rereceding year; and the receipts from public lands two been dimenished by the use of land war ents under the bounty land bill of the last session

It will be seen that the receipts from customs or the remaining three quarters of the fiscal year 556, have been advanced from the estimated re eipts submitted in my last report. This has sendene because the abundant agricultural pro-uctions in all sections of our country will justify arger exportations, and because all the demand or provisions in Europe, caused by the war and mited crops; but with the expectation of less deand for cotton, and diminished prices, and also he return of American stocks under continued tringency in the money markets of Europe, grow g out of the demand of money for the war, and r breadstuffs, and the withdrawal of money from reulation, under an apprehended scarcity, aus s effects upon the money market in the United tates. Important Notice.

We find it necessary to call the attention of our yearly advertisers to the fact that after the 1st of January, 1856, we shall confine them strict!v to their contracts, or, what amounts to the same, charge extra for all over and above. Some of our advertisers have been getting about twice as much as their contracts called for; we cannot permit it any longer. See our published

The editor of the Lonisville Journal farnishes in his paper of yesterday morning some important information. The Philadelphia platform is daily becoming more popular; even in the Procesoil States the people are fast learning to think for themselves. The people of the North are beginning to recognize the true National doctrine in the twelfth plank, etc.

The public are curious to know where the editor of the Journal got this information from. The rest of mankind are in the dark as to what transpires in the secret lodges, but as the increasing popularity must be amongst the outsiders they ought to know semething about it. It is very true that the doctrine of popular sovereignty in the Territories is gaining ground, and the conviction that Congress has no constitutional power over slavery anywhere; but that is nothing to the credit of the bogus American twelfth section. There is a party that published this doctrine, and seted enitin 1850 and 1854. They do not pretermit the op nion as to the constitutional question as the twelfth plank does, nor do they dodge the responsibility of past legislation; they are the authers of it, and it is due to them that public opinion in the free States is fast forming in favor mond, Virginia, on the 6th inst. DISMISSAL OF MR. CHAMPTON AND THE BRITISH CONSULS —A decisive step has been taken relative to British chlistments. The Phantom Ship.

And a light wind whispereth up the bay,

Softly the golden bowl of day

Dreamful and murmurously.

The deop red wine o'errans the rim

That's carven in blue and gold.

In a white cloud's misty fold.

For a lover that's far at sea.

Not as the night goes shelving down,

On the deep blue of the west.

With an old irregular song,

On a voyage sad and long;

To reach the friendly land,

Until the waves had washed away

Her keel-mark from the sand.

A calm on my weary spirit lies,

Like the dusk upon the sea :

From the waters up to me.

And a thousand phantom murmurs rise

Of the laden barge of a blis ful dream,

That saited from the port of youth ;

That sailed, in vain, through many a day,

Till the waves of life had washed away

At ten minutes past 2 o'clock, this P. M., Stock some time, it was agreed that the hearing should proceed before the court as at present constituted.

Rice, and Driskill were duly executed by the hands of the Sheriff, Thos. Jefferson Chisson, the first named for the marder of John Rose, and the Mr. Van Buren opened for the defendant, aud two latter for the murder of Cephas Fahrencommented at some length upon the evidence de-livered at the trial, which tended to criminate Mrs.

Wo have only time this evening to state, that form and promptly. Neither of the miserable cul-prits had any confession to make, but on the con-trary, each protested his innocence to the last—even upon the scaffold. Such stoicism-such utter indifference to the fato that awaited them, was, perhaps, never witnessed before. Each washed himself, combed his hair, and dressed himself with as much composure as though they were preparing to attend some festive oc ssion. Stocking even composedly read the news items of the N. Y. Evening Post, after his arms and legs were pinioned for the scaff as though he were waiting the arrival of an or bus to convey him to some pleasure party. After the drop of the fatal scaffold, scarcely a muscle of either of the victims moved, to indicate the dying cking, Rice, and Driskill are dead-justice has been vindicated, and the world moves on as though nothing had occurred to interrupt its progress. A large crowd was in town, but only about torty witnessed the horrible tragedy. Further accounts will be given in our Saturday evening' edition. As soon as the execution was over the the crowd dispersed.

Thus ended the first execution ever witnessed in Latayette. God grant that it may be the last.

The Journal of the morning gives the following account of the horrible indifference and levity of these bad men. One of them, it will be remem-bered, when sentence was passed on him, made the post awfully profane remark that ever escape Of a ship that sailed from a friendly shore, the lips of human depravity. He said "he wanted to be hung early, so as to be in hell in time for th ilest table at dinner."

The unfortunate criminals still manifest a reck-less spirit of bravado, and to use their own lan-guage are determined to "die game" in the face of God and man.

We stood in the gnard room yesterday which by a grated door commands a view of the hall of the jail, and listened to their conversation as they were taken from their cells to undergo the operation of shaving. They joked with the barber upon their approaching execution in a manner too stee-ening for recital, and indulged in the most horrid Stocking, strange as it may seem, although quite as jovial, was less profune than Rice or Dri:

deserves the palm. There is one thing, however, that we feel justified in saying to our ludy readers, and that s: If they will visit ROLSBERG's Mammoth Daguerroan Gallery, No. 531 Main street, between Second and Third, they will find some of those elegantly finished and lifelike Daguerreotypes which, have rendered these rooms the resort of the beauty and tashion of the city an country. The picturestaken by Rocsberg do not make the light and red hair appear as dark as midnight (a fault by fartoo common in Ambrotypes), but they show a proper distinction of light and shade, and "hold, as it were, the mirror up to nature," correctly portraying the peculiar features of the originals. So, we advise all to be no longer humbugged with high priced likenesses, while these magnificent piernres may be obtained for fifty cents and upwards. At this gallery may also be found one of the finest assortments of Cases n the city, which are sold cheaper than at any other honse. Call and you will be satisfied. GEO. F. ROESBERG.
